II: Motion for Summary Judgment

Defendant, Taggart, files and "Motions The Court" for Summary Judgment to entered against GMAC Mortgage, LLC on all 32 counts pending for misleading the court as to the untimely filing of the Notice of bankruptcy and as to the effect on the bankruptcy that was filed on May 14, 2012. GMAC Mortgage, LLC failed to timely notify this court of Bankruptcy that was filed on May 14, 2012; It only file notice after defendant notified the court of the pending bankruptcy. The court further misrepresented to the court and Taggart the effect of the Stay even after it filed notice with this court. GMAC Mortgage, LLC filed a brief with the court that only one count of the thirty two pending counts were able to proceed... a clear misrepresentation of the Stay. The bankruptcy court issued a ruling on the matter clarifying that all counts should proceed following an appeal by Taggart on the pending Stay.

A) Defendant Prejudiced

Defendant, Taggart, was clearly misled by GMAC Mortgage, LLC and prejudiced by the misrepresentations to the court and defendant regarding the effect of the bankruptcy and Stay. Furthermore, there have been several pleadings since May 14, 2012 in this case... all of which are in violation of The United States Bankruptcy Code and Rules of both The United States Bankruptcy Court & The Court of Common Pleas of Pennsylvania.

Conclusion

For the forgoing reasons, the defendant requests that a judgment be entered in favor of defendant Taggart on all claims against GMAC Mortgage, LLC. In addition to a judgment entered in favor of defendant, GMAC Mortgage, LLC shall pay all costs incurred by defendant to defend this case including his cost for time to defend this case. Sanctions should be imposed on GMAC Mortgage, LLC as well as counsel and awarded to defendant for the willful actions that prejudiced this case and prevented Taggart from receiving a fair trial under The United States Constitution as well as The Pennsylvania State Constitution. The court should award defendant actual damages, general damages, special damages, and punitive damages for such willful acts of misconduct. Defendant also requests the court award any other just compensation regarding the above matter.

At the very least this case should be stayed pending Bankruptcy Courts disposition on this matter.

Respectfully Submitted
